

Interested in introducing your Middle School Student to STEM careers?

On July 11th and 13th, students from across Northern Kentucky and Greater Cincinnati will have the opportunity to participate in Day Out, a free hands-on learning experience supported by local employers.

STEM Day Out program is designed to promote interest in STEM careers (science, technology, engineering & math). The workshop will allow for personal and in-depth career exploration. The students will learn about STEM careers first-hand by touring and visiting a local company from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

STEM Day Out is a FREE experiential learning opportunity for students across Northern Kentucky/Greater Cincinnati!

Host locations Include: Celanese, Gateway, General Cable, KLH Engineering, Loreal, Cincinnati Childrens, Fidelity, Innovation Network, Safran, MAZAK, NKU, St. Elizabeth, Thomas More.
